FIRM RESUME

Altshuler Berzon LLP is a San Francisco law firm that specializes in labor and employment, environmental, constitutional, campaign and election, and civil rights law. Although most of our cases are in federal and state courts in California, we appear regularly in courts throughout the country and before the National Labor Relations Board.

In past years, the firm's attorneys have won major victories in the cases described below, following the description of the firm's current docket. Attorney biographies and citations to decisions follow at the end of this resume.

CURRENT CASES

Altshuler Berzon LLP's current docket includes the following matters:

* North Carolina State Conference of the NAACP v. The North Carolina State Bd. of Elections: Federal law challenge to North Carolina state and county officials' removal of thousands of voters from the registration rolls in the weeks leading up to the November 2016 election based on mass challenges alleging that the voters had relocated their residences.

* Sanchez/Hughes/Salazar/Ochoa v. McDonald's: California state law class actions on behalf of restaurant crew members employed by corporate-owned and franchisee-owned McDonald's fast food outlets, alleging numerous violations of California employment law and seeking to establish McDonald's corporate liability on joint employer and other theories.

* Gerawan Farms v. Agricultural Labor Relations Board: Representation of the United Farm Workers before the California Supreme Court in defense of the constitutionality of a California law requiring binding interest arbitration to resolve agricultural labor disputes.

* People v. Atlantic Richfield Co.: The defense on appeal of California trial court order requiring paint manufacturers to contribute over $1 billion to abate hazards caused by deteriorating lead-based paint in private homes.

* In re Anthem Inc. Data Breach: Co-lead counsel in federal multi-district litigation involving hundreds of consumer class actions against Anthem, Inc. and its affiliated Blue Cross-Blue Shield companies for allegedly failing to maintain the confidentiality of the personal information of approximately 80 million Americans, in one of the largest data breaches in U.S. history.

* Int'l Union of Operating Engineers Local 370 v. Wasden: A federal court challenge to Idaho's "Right to Work" statute as preempted by the National Labor Relations Act and as a taking without due process under the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments.

* Dynamex Operations West, Inc. v. Superior Court: An amicus brief in the California Supreme Court on behalf of three international unions to establish the proper definition of "employee" to be used in California Labor Code and Wage Order cases brought by workers alleging they were misclassified as independent contractors.

* Patterson v. Raymour's Furniture Co./AT&T Mobility Svcs., LLC v. NLRB/Professional Janitorial Svc. v. NLRB/Price-Simms, Inc. v. NLRB//24 Hour Fitness v. NLRB/Everglades College, Inc. v. NLRB/The Rose Group v. NLRB/ Totten v. Kellogg Brown & Root, LLC: Party and amicus briefing in challenges pending in the First, Second, Fourth, Sixth, Eleventh, and D.C. Circuits, and in the Supreme Court, to mandatory employment arbitration agreements that prohibit joint, class, and representative actions, as violating the right to engage in concerted protected activity guaranteed by the National Labor Relations Act and the Norris-LaGuardia Act.

* Villarreal v. R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company: A collective action in federal court brought against R.J. Reynolds and its two hiring agencies alleging disparate impact under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act against job applicants 40 years of age or older.

* Keller v. California State University: A state court class action lawsuit against the California State University alleging the University breached its contracts with tens of thousands of students by imposing last-minute fee increases.

* NRDC v. Jewell: Following remand from an 11-0 en banc victory at the Ninth Circuit, continued litigation of an environmental challenge to long-term contracts for the delivery of more than 2.3 million acre-feet of California Central Valley Project water, which allegedly pose a severe risk to the survival and recovery of the threatened Delta smelt and salmon.

* Fanning v. HSBC/Lindgren v. HSBC: Privacy class actions in federal court on behalf of California credit card account holders alleging that their telephone conversations with bank's debt collection and financial fraud personnel were secretly recorded.

* Andino/Ahmad/Arenzana/Avila/Khan v. CEVA: Multiple federal court lawsuits asserting wage and hour claims under the California Labor Code on behalf of delivery truck drivers who were allegedly misclassified as independent contractors rather than employees.

* Faulkner v. Dominguez: The defense of a union representing airline ramp, operations, provisions and freight agents in a federal court action for breach of contract.

* Kilby v. CVS Pharmacy, Inc./Henderson v. J.P. Morgan Chase/Brown v. Walmart: Federal court actions, on remand from the Ninth Circuit after California Supreme Court's ruling on certified questions, alleging that the defendant companies failed to provide their employees with suitable seating, as required by a century-old California Wage Order.

* Riffey v. Rauner/Winner v. Rauner/Bierman v. Dayton/Mentele v. Inslee/Centeno v. Quigley/Hill v. SEIU: The defense, in courts of appeals and district courts, of state laws that permit childcare and homecare providers to have union representation and that permitted the unions to require all represented employees to pay their fair share of the costs of providing that representation.

* Hamidi v. SEIU Local 1000: The defense in federal court of a California statute requiring state employees who choose not to become members of the union that represents them in collective bargaining to opt out of paying their pro rata portion of certain non-bargaining expenses if they do not wish to pay for such expenses.

* Int'l Bhd. of Teamsters v. United States Dep't of Transportation: A petition in the Ninth Circuit challenging as arbitrary and capricious the conclusions of the Department of Transportation's report to Congress regarding the U.S.-Mexico Cross-Border Long-Haul Trucking Pilot Program, and arguing that the report cannot provide the basis for granting long-haul operating authority to Mexico-domiciled trucks.

* Warner v. Fry's Electronics: A state court representative action for civil penalties brought on behalf of sales employees alleging systematic violations of California's minimum wage law.

* Unico v. Harris: The defense on appeal of a federal district court decision upholding against a federal preemption and constitutional challenge a California law requiring contractors performing work at refineries to use a skilled and trained workforce.

* Alvarez v. Inslee: The defense against a constitutional challenge to collectively bargained agreements that grant union representatives access to the public sector employees they represent.

* American Airlines Flow-Thru Pilots Coalition v. Allied Pilots Ass'n: The defense of a labor union sued for the position it took in collective bargaining negotiations.

* Demetris v. Transport Workers Union/Letbetter v. Transport Workers Union: The defense on appeal of a judgment of dismissal in favor of a labor union sued over its equity distribution plan in connection with American Airlines' bankruptcy proceedings.

* Monsanto Co. v. Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment: The representation of an intervenor to defend the constitutionality of Proposition 65's mechanism for listing known carcinogens against a challenge brought by Monsanto.

* Spicher v. Aidells Sausage Co.: A class action asserting wage and hour claims under the California Labor Code on behalf of food product demonstrators.

* Quiles v. Koji's Restaurants: An appeal from a state court ruling exempting owners of closely-held corporations from joint-employer liability under California law.

* AFT Local 2121 v. Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges: A challenge brought on behalf of labor organizations representing community college faculty and individual faculty members to the practices of an organization that accredits California community colleges and to that entity's threatened termination of the accreditation of City College of San Francisco.

* Maloney v. T3Media, Inc.: An amicus brief to the Ninth Circuit on behalf of five major professional sports unions supporting reversal of a district court ruling that the Copyright Act preempts college athletes' right-of-publicity challenge to a company's non-consensual marketing and sale of copyrighted photographs of those athletes.

* Professional Janitorial Services, Inc. v. SEIU Local 5: Representation on appeal of a union engaged in organizing janitorial workers seeking to overturn a $7.8 million Texas state court judgment for business disparagement.

* Allied Concrete v. Baker: The representation of labor union intervenors to defend against a constitutional challenge to a state law that requires suppliers of concrete to public works projects to pay prevailing wages to ready-mix delivery drivers.

* Wise v. State of Missouri: A challenge to a state law preempting local minimum wage ordinances, raising "single subject" rule and other state law grounds.

* NRDC v. McCarthy: A federal court action alleging that the Environmental Protection Agency failed to carry out its non-discretionary duty to review and take action in response to the California State Water Resources Control Board's orders revising water quality standards in the San Francisco Bay-Delta Estuary.

We also represent many local unions and apprenticeship programs on general matters, including litigation, negotiations, arbitrations and advice. In addition, we represent many workers in individual employment matters, public agencies in selected constitutional cases, and law firms and public interest organizations on statutory and common fund attorneys' fees matters. We also defend labor unions and public interest groups against SLAPP suits, and regularly provide legal advice to both unions and public agencies on the drafting of legislation, ballot measures, and regulations.

VICTORIES

LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT

* UAW v. Johnson Controls (Supreme Court): Prohibited employers from adopting “fetal protection” policies that discriminate against female workers in violation of Title VII.

* UAW v. Brock (Supreme Court): Compelled the Department of Labor to restore $200 million in wrongfully withheld Trade Act benefits to thousands of unemployed autoworkers and steelworkers.

* Bower v. Bunker Hill Co.: Restored, after a six-week jury trial, tens of millions of dollars of retiree health insurance benefits that had been terminated following the shutdown of Idaho’s largest private employer.

* Golden Gate Restaurant Ass’n v. City and County of San Francisco: Obtained a Ninth Circuit ruling upholding, against an ERISA preemption challenge, a San Francisco ordinance that requires employers either to provide health benefits to their employees or to pay into a City fund for the same purpose.

* UAW v. Kiddoo: Required California to resume paying unemployment compensation to almost 400,000 unemployed workers following a budgetary impasse between the Legislature and the Governor.

* Bay Area Laundry Workers v. Ferbar (Supreme Court): Established longer statute of limitations for suits against employers who withdraw from multi-employer pension plans.

* Burlington Northern Santa Fe Ry. Co. v. Int’l Bhd. of Teamsters Local 174: Obtained a unanimous en banc court of appeals decision overturning decisions that had severely weakened the protection afforded by the Norris-LaGuardia Act to union economic action.

* Armendariz v. Foundation Health Psychcare Svcs.: Obtained a California Supreme Court ruling that employers cannot require their employees, as a condition of employment, to resolve employment claims through arbitration, where the arbitration agreement does not provide for specific procedural protections.

* UFCW Local 751 v. Brown Shoe Group, Inc. (Supreme Court): Established union standing to sue employers that violate the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act’s statutory notice requirements.

* Vergara v. California: Overturned on appeal trial court decision invalidating as unconstitutional California statutes governing public school teacher tenure and layoff.

* Air Line Pilots Association, International, et al. v. United Airlines, Inc.: Obtained declaratory and injunctive relief on behalf of United Airlines pilots requiring the airline to comply with California's Kin Care law, which requires employers that offer paid sick leave to allow employees to use up to half of that leave to care for ill relatives.

* 24 Hour Fitness USA, Inc./ Totten v. Kellogg Brown & Root, LLC: Obtained rulings from the National Labor Relations Board and the Central District of California striking down mandatory employment arbitration agreements that prohibit class collective actions and representative actions as violations of the right to engage in concerted protected activity guaranteed by the National Labor Relations Act.

* Greene v. Dayton: Obtained Eighth Circuit decision affirming district court's dismissal of claims that a state law permitting homecare workers for Medicaid program participants to be represented by a union is preempted by the National Labor Relations Act, violates the Contract Clause, and tortiously interferes with the right to contract.

* Chamber of Commerce v. City of Seattle: Obtained dismissal of a business challenge to a Seattle ordinance establishing a process for collective organization of independent contractor drivers for taxi and for-hire companies.

* Does I, et al. v. The Gap, Inc., et al.: Negotiated a $20 million settlement and innovative workplace monitoring program in anti-sweatshop class action on behalf of 30,000 Chinese and other foreign workers against Saipan garment factories and retailers for alleged violations of the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act, the Alien Tort Claims Act, the Fair Labor Standards Act, and federal common law.

* Granite Rock Co. v. Int'l Bhd. of Teamsters (Supreme Court): Obtained a U.S. Supreme Court decision rejecting an employer's unprecedented attempt to expand Section 301 of the Labor Management Relations Act to include tort theories for interference with contract by international union.

* Regents of the University of Wisconsin v. Adidas: Successful intervention on behalf of an Indonesian labor union, followed by settlement in the Wisconsin state court, of an action brought to hold Adidas responsible under a University licensing agreement for unpaid wages and benefits owed to 2,700 Indonesian garment workers employed by a bankrupt factory that manufactured Adidas apparel.

* Washington Service Contractors Coalition v. District of Columbia: Successfully defended against a federal preemption challenge a local displaced worker ordinance that requires new service contractors to retain the employees of their predecessors.

* NLRB v. Town & Country Electric, Inc. (Supreme Court): Protected paid union organizers from discriminatory discharge or refusal to hire under the National Labor Relations Act.

* Carrillo v. Schneider Logistics, Inc.: Federal district court class action resulting in $22.7 million settlement on behalf of low-wage immigrant warehouse workers who alleged that Walmart, its warehouse operator, and their labor services contractors were joint employers liable for a series of state and federal wage-and-hour violations, including for imposing unlawful group piece rate scheme, wage fraud, and wrongful mass retaliatory termination.

* Does I Thru XXIII v. Advanced Textile Corp.: Established the right of workers to sue under fictitious names and withhold their identities from their employers, where they reasonably fear that disclosure of their identities will result in severe retaliation.

* Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court: Obtained a unanimous California Supreme Court decision, which ultimately resulted in a $56 million settlement, establishing standards governing meal period and rest break claims, and affirming in part and reversing in part trial court's certification of class of low-wage restaurant workers.

* Veliz v. Cintas Corp.: Obtained a $22.75 million settlement of class actions and individual cases pending in the Ninth Circuit, the Northern District of California, the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation, and AAA arbitration, each of which challenged a nationwide industrial laundry company's policy of classifying its drivers as exempt from overtime requirements of federal and state wage-and-hour laws.

* AFL-CIO v. Employment Development Department: Compelled California to continue to pay unemployment compensation benefits to hundreds of thousands of claimants per year pending evidentiary hearings on their continued eligibility.

* Hawaii State Teachers Assn./United Public Workers v. Lingle: Enjoined the Governor of Hawaii from unilaterally implementing unpaid furloughs for all state employees of three days per month on the ground that unilateral implementation violated the state constitutional right to collective bargaining.

* Broussard v. First Tower Loan, LLC: Obtained an arbitration decision holding that an employer violated Title VII's prohibition against sex discrimination when it constructively discharged a transgender male employee by requiring that he act and dress in conformity with traditional female gender stereotypes, and awarding economic and non-economic damages.

* El Centro v. Lanier: Defeated a state constitutional challenge to a California law that provides charter cities with a financial incentive to require contractors on municipal construction projects to pay prevailing wages to their employees and to hire apprentices.

* SEIU-UHW v. Fresno County IHSS Public Authority: Obtained an injunction requiring Fresno County to maintain the wage and benefit rates paid to providers of in-home support services pending arbitration of the union's grievance regarding the wage and benefit reduction.

* D.R. Horton: On behalf of amici SEIU and Change to Win, obtained a ruling from the National Labor Relations Board (later reversed by Fifth Circuit but still binding on Board administrative law judges) that employers commit an unfair labor practice by including prohibitions against joint, class, and collective actions in mandatory employment arbitration agreements.

* Narayan v. EGL: Obtained a Ninth Circuit reversal of a district court's grant of summary judgment to an employer of delivery truck drivers, on the grounds that the district court had improperly applied Texas law to California drivers' statutory wage and hour claims and incorrect concluded that the drivers were independent contractors rather than employees.

* Satchell v. FedEx Express: Obtained a consent decree providing $55 million in monetary relief to two classes of African American and Latino employees of FedEx Express, as well as comprehensive injunctive relief against discriminatory employment practices, including reducing managerial discretion in promotions, compensation and discipline, and prohibiting the use of a promotion test that had an adverse impact on minority employees.

* Noe v. Superior Court: Obtained a Court of Appeal decision holding that businesses that hire contractors can be held liable under California's Private Attorney General Act for their contractors' misclassification of the contractors' employees as independent contractors.

* Bright v. 99 Cent Only Stores, Inc./Home Depot v. Superior Ct.: Obtained Court of Appeal rulings that California workers have private right of action under the Labor Code for civil PAGA penalties against employers who violate minimum labor conditions standards guaranteed by Industrial Wage Commission wage orders.

* Pulaski v. Calif. Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board: Successfully defended the nation's first safety standard on ergonomics against an industry challenge, and invalidated exemptions that would have prevented that standard from applying to most California workplaces.

* Passantino v. Johnson & Johnson Consumer Products, Inc.: Successfully defended on appeal a multi-million dollar jury award in an employment discrimination action under federal and state law.

* SkyWest Pilots ALPA Organizing Committee v. SkyWest Airlines, Inc.: Obtained a temporary restraining order and a preliminary injunction prohibiting an airline from interfering with its pilots' rights to organize and to free expression under the Railway Labor Act.

* California Teachers Ass'n v. Governing Bd. of Salinas City Elementary Sch. Dist.: Obtained a California Supreme Court order vacating, and a subsequent Court of Appeal decision reversing, a court of appeal opinion that had required union to arbitrate non-waivable statutory claims brought on behalf of its members; on remand, obtained writ requiring school district to place teachers on the correct steps on the salary schedule and to provide more than $3 million in back pay and interest.

* State Building & Constr. Trades v. Aubry: Struck down, as a usurpation of legislative authority, administrative regulations that would have lowered by 20 percent the prevailing wage rate paid to construction workers on public projects.

* Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exchange (Bell III): Obtained an appellate decision upholding the largest overtime pay jury verdict in history, in class action on behalf of insurance company claims representatives who were misclassified as exempt under California's wage and hour law, and subsequently negotiated a settlement in excess of $200 million for class members.

* The Hess Collection Winery v. California Agricultural Relations Bd.: Successfully defended against a constitutional challenge a California statute providing for the binding resolution of disputes between agricultural employers and their union-represented employees arising from their failure to agree on an initial labor contract, thereby guaranteeing that agricultural workers will obtain an initial contract.

* Employee Staffing Services, Inc. v. Aubry: Defeated an employee-leasing company's ERISA preemption challenge to California's workers' compensation laws.

* Long Beach City Employees v. City of Long Beach: Overturned on state constitutional grounds a city policy requiring public employees to submit to polygraph examinations.

* Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corp.: Obtained a ruling that a national aluminum manufacturer violated the National Labor Relations Act by unlawfully locking out 3,000 of its employees and must pay them approximately $175 million in back wages, at that time the highest backpay award in the history of the Act.

* Associated Builders and Contractors v. Nunn/ACTA v. Smith: Defeated federal court preemption challenges to a regulation raising the minimum wage rates for California apprentices.

* Duran v. U.S. Bank: Obtained a unanimous California Supreme Court ruling, after briefing and oral argument on behalf of a coalition of amicus groups, allowing California employees to prove class-wide claims through surveys, and statistical and representative evidence, as long as trial plan provides their employer an adequate opportunity to prove individualized affirmative defenses.

* Amaral v. Cintas Corp.: Won a $1.6 million summary judgment in a class action challenging a nationwide laundry company's systematic underpayment of its workers, defeating state law preemption and federal due process challenges to a local living wage ordinance.

* Ellis v. Costco Wholesale Corp.: Obtained an $8 million settlement on behalf of a class of women employees who alleged gender discrimination in promotions in violation of Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act, as well as wide-ranging programmatic relief modifying corporate policies to allow women a greater chance of promotions in the future.

* AFL-CIO v. Marshall: Obtained a ruling requiring payment of an additional 26 weeks of extended unemployment compensation benefits, worth billions of dollars, to unemployed workers nationwide.

* Capers v. Nunn: Obtained a decision upholding a California Apprenticeship Council ruling that precluded non-union apprenticeship program from operating outside its approved geographic area.

* M.R. v. Dreyfus: Obtained a Ninth Circuit ruling that plaintiffs challenging a ten percent reduction in hours of Medicaid home care services are entitled to a preliminary injunction under the Americans with Disabilities Act.

* Hart v. Electronic Arts/Keller v. Electronic Arts: Successfully briefed and argued a Third Circuit appeal and briefed a Ninth Circuit appeal in cases establishing that NCAA student athletes have a state law right-of-publicity in the commercial use of their likenesses that is sufficient to overcome video game manufacturers' First Amendment defense, later resulting in $40 million settlement.

* Wells Fargo v. City of Richmond/Bank of New York v. City of Richmond: Successful defense of lawsuits filed against the city of Richmond that allege it would be illegal for the city to exercise eminent domain authority to condemn residential mortgage loans.

* Sharp v. Next Entertainment, Inc.: Helped to obtain a decision holding that the California Rules of Professional Responsibility do not preclude labor unions and other advocacy groups from funding class-action litigation, by filing amicus curiae brief and presenting oral argument on behalf of labor and public interest groups, including the ACLU of Southern California.

* Utility Consumers' Action Network v. Sears/California Federal Bank/Household Credit Service/Texaco Credit Card Services/Capital One/Bank of America: Obtained settlements in a series of consumer privacy class actions against financial institutions and credit card companies prohibiting unauthorized dissemination of personal account information to third party telemarketers.

* California Labor Federation v. Cal. OSHA: Invalidated, on state constitutional grounds, California Budget Act restrictions on the state's payment of public interest attorneys' fees.

* Gardner v. Schwarzenegger: Obtained a restraining order, preliminary injunction, and permanent injunction, which was affirmed on appeal, against enforcement of a state statute that would have permitted incarceration of non-violent drug offenders contrary to California Proposition 36, which mandated probation and drug treatment.

* Hamilton v. Great Expectations: Obtained an $8.5 million settlement of a statewide class action against a video dating service that had electronically eavesdropped on confidential membership interviews.

* Garvin v. Utility Consumers' Action Network/Savage v. Utility Consumers' Action Network: Successful defense on appeal of a $14 million settlement of a state law privacy class action challenging a bank's practice of selling confidential consumer information to third-party marketing companies.

* Ammari Electronics v. Pacific Bell Directory: Successfully defended on appeal a $17.35 million jury verdict on behalf of small businesses that paid for, but did not receive, best-efforts distribution of Pacific Bell Yellow Page Directories.

* Jensen v. Kaiser Permanente: Obtained the rescission of a health maintenance organization's cost-cutting policy requiring staff psychiatrists to prescribe psychotropic medications for patients they have not examined.

* Welfare Rights Org. v. Crisan: Established an evidentiary privilege for communications between applicants for public benefits and their lay representatives, including union representatives.

* Rogers v. Governing Bd. of the Sacramento City Unified Sch. Dist.: Obtained a writ of mandate and a permanent injunction under the California Charter Schools Act prohibiting a school board from converting an existing public high school into a charter school without the approval of a majority of the school's teachers and requiring the school district to open a new non-charter public high school upon a showing of community support.

* In re Sealed Case: Obtained a $13.2 million settlement of a False Claims Act case and two related wrongful termination cases on behalf of a husband and wife who were terminated after disclosing extensive fraud committed by their government contractor employer.

* NAACP v. Davis: Reinstated a statutory requirement that the California Highway Patrol must collect racial profiling data, despite gubernatorial funding veto.

* California Court Reporters Ass'n v. Judicial Council: Struck down rules that would have allowed official court reporters to be replaced by audiotape recordings in California Superior Courts, and obtained an injunction against expenditures of taxpayer funds in furtherance of such rules.

* In re Marriage Cases: Helped obtain a California Supreme Court decision upholding the right to same-sex marriage under the California Constitution, by filing amicus curiae brief in conjunction with professors and students from Howard University Law School.

* Davidson v. County of Sonoma: Obtained a substantial settlement on behalf of a law enforcement officer injured as a result of his employer's mock hostage training exercise in which he was seized and threatened at gunpoint.

* Vasquez v. State of California: Obtained a unanimous California Supreme Court decision holding that prevailing plaintiffs who seek private attorney general fees are not required, as a condition of eligibility for a fee award, to demonstrate that they made efforts to settle their dispute before filing their civil complaint.

* Olney v. Pringle: Negotiated a settlement prohibiting state legislators from paying large retroactive salary increases to select staff in violation of the state Constitution.

* Gary W. v. State of Louisiana/La Raza Unida v. Volpe: Required Louisiana and California to pay federal court civil rights attorney's fee awards, despite the refusal of state legislatures to appropriate the necessary funds.

* The Northeast Ohio Coalition for the Homeless v. Husted: Overturned a long-standing Sixth Circuit rule capping the number of compensable hours incurred in public interest attorneys' fees litigation to three percent of the hours incurred in litigating the underlying case.

* Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l Inc.: Obtained a unanimous California Supreme Court decision approving the use of percentage-based common fund attorneys' fees in public interest litigation.

* Nobles v. MBNA Corp.: Obtained a settlement of a California consumer class action against a bank that misleadingly offered consumer lines of credit without disclosing hidden costs and credit impacts, resulting in a payment to class members of more than 85% of the claimed losses, with interest.

* Beaver v. Tarsadia Hotels: Obtained an order on reconsideration, and then successfully defended it on appeal, resulting in a $130 million judgment for plaintiffs holding that the four-year limitations period of California's Unfair Competition Law applies to conduct that violates the federal Interstate Land Sales Transfer Act, despite the federal statute's shorter limitations period.

ALTSHULER BERZON LLP'S ATTORNEYS

Fred H. Altshuler, who retired in 2010, is a founding partner of Altshuler Berzon LLP.
